Underground Stations

GUIDE TO LONDON

PLACES OF INTEREST

The letter and number in brackets (thus, N10 50) after the article indicates the map-square and page in which the place will be found.

NOTE.—Stations on the "Underground" system are shown in italics.

Admiralty, The, Whitehall, S.W.1. The administrative headquarters of the British Navy. The wireless installation on the roof enables the Admiralty to keep in touch with the Fleet in distant seas. Admission on business only. Office hours, 10 a.m.—5 p.m. Nearest stations, Trafalgar Square, Strand. (N10 50.)

Admiralty Arch, Pall Mall, S.W.1. This massive triumphal arch forms part of the Admiralty buildings, and was designed by Sir A. Webb. The triple gates are a fine example of wrought-iron work. Nearest stations, Trafalgar Square, Strand. (N10 38.)

Agricultural Hall, Upper Street, Islington, N.1. From time to time important cattle shows, exhibitions, etc., are held here. For announcements see daily Press. Nearest station, Angel. (P6 27.)

Albert Embankment connects Westminster and Vauxhall bridges, on the south side of the Thames. At its northern end is St. Thomas's Hospital, and from here a fine view of the Houses of Parliament is obtainable. Nearest stations, Westminster, Lambeth (North), Vauxhall (S.R.). (O11 50.)

Albert Hall, Royal, Kensington Gore, S.W.7. Erected as a memorial of the Prince Consort in 1867-71, this Hall is one of the largest in the world, and is famous for its concerts and great public functions. It can accommodate about 10,000, whilst the great organ has nearly 9,000 pipes. The frieze round the top on the outside should be noticed. For concerts, public meetings, etc., see announcements in the Press. Nearest station, South Kensington. (J11 48.)

Albert Memorial, Kensington Gardens, S.W.7. Erected in 1872 to the memory of the Prince Consort. The design has been (with some justice) adversely criticized, but the marble reliefs around the pedestal are notably excellent. The monument (by Scott) directly faces the Albert Hall (q.v.). Nearest station, South Kensington. (J1 148.)

Alexandra Palace, Muswell Hill, N.10. A building of a similar kind to the Crystal Palace (q.v.). The Palace and grounds are free to the public, except on occasions when exhibitions and race meetings are held. The grounds contain the Alexandra Park ("A.P.") Racecourse. Near eststations, Alexandra Palace or Wood Green (L.N.E.R. from King's Cross), Palace Gates (L.N.E.R. from Liverpool St.). Also trains from Broad St. and Moorgate St. Stations.

Bank of England, Threadneedle St., E.C.2, familiarly known as the "Old Lady of Threadneedle St.", stands at one of the busiest spots in London, in the very heart of the city. It has the monopoly of printing and issuing bank-notes, and the vaults generally hold over £20,000,000 in bullion. It also transacts ordinary banking business, and its business offices are open daily from 9 a.m.—3 p.m. The bank is guarded at night by a detachment of Guards and watchmen. Nearest station, Bank. (R9 39.)

Bethnal Green Museum, Cambridge Rd., E.2. A branch of the Victoria and Albert Museum, established in 1872 as a Local Museum for East London. The exhibits include a fine collection of water-colour and oil-paintings, some of great value, which was bequeathed by Joshua Dixon, Esq., of Exeter, in 1885 ; and collections of antique and modern furniture, textiles, etc. Open free daily, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sun., 2.30 to 6 p.m. Nearest stations, Bethnal Green (L.N.E.R.), Cambridge Heath (L.N.E.R.). (U7 41.)

Billingsgate Market, Lower Thames St., E.C.3. London's centre for the fish-trade. The reputation of the fish-porters for coarse language is alleged to be undeserved. Open from 5 a.m. Nearest stations, Monument, Mark Lane. (R10 39.)

British Museum, Great Russell St., W.C.1. Originating in the Sloane collection in 1753, this great institution has no rival in the world. The Exhibition Galleries are open free daily, 10 a.m.—6 p.m.; Sun., 2 p.m.—dusk. The Reading Room (open 9 a.m. 6 p.m.) is open only to ticket-holders (tickets gratis on application to the Director in writing), and its catalogue alone comprises over 1,000 large volumes; whilst there are over 50 miles of shelving. Guide-books, etc., on sale in the Entrance Hall. Official guides conduct parties daily at 12 noon and 3 p.m. There is a refreshment-room on the ground floor which is open after 3 p.m. The Museum is closed Good Friday and Christmas Day. Nearest stations, Holborn (Kingsway), Tottenham Court Rd. (N8 38.)

Brompton Oratory, Brompton Rd., S.W.7. A Roman Catholic Church, in the Italian Renaissance style, by H. Gribble; the interior is richly decorated in mosaic and carvings. Open free to visitors except during services and on Sat. The high standard of the music attracts many worshippers. Services, daily, almost continuously, 6.30 a.m.—10 a.m. High mass, Sun., 11 a.m. Other services, 12 noon (low mass and sermon), 3.30 p.m., 7 p.m. Nearest station, South Kensington. (K11 48.)

Buckingham Palace, St. James's Park, S.W.1. The London residence of the King and Queen. The new front (added in 1913) improved the formerly ugly exterior. When the sovereign is in residence the ceremony of changing the guard takes place at 10.30 a.m., an interesting ceremony, during which the Guards' Band plays. The fine interior is not shown to the public. The Royal apartments are in the north wing. Application to view the Royal Mews (cream-coloured ponies, State coach, etc.) should be made in writing to the Master of the Horse. Nearest stations, Victoria, Green Park (M11 49.)

Bunhill Fields, City Rd., E.C.1. A famous Nonconformist burial-ground. Here are the graves of John Bunyan, Daniel Defoe, Isaac Watts (the hymn-writer), John Owen, Susannah Wesley (mother of John and Charles), etc. John Wesley is buried in his Chapel opposite. In the Friends' Burial Ground (adjoining) is the grave of George Fox, founder of the Society. Nearest station, Old St. (R8 39.)

Burlington House. See Royal Academy of Arts.

Carlyle's House, 24 (formerly 5 Gt.) Cheyne Row, Chelsea, S.W.3, contains many personal relics of its famous occupant and his contemporaries. Admission, 10 a.m.—dusk, 1s. Parties of 10 or more, 6d. each. Sat., 6d. (K13 48.)

Cavell Memorial, St. Martin's Place, W.C.2. Unveiled in 1920 as a memorial to Nurse Edith Cavell. The work is by Sir G. Frampton. Nearest station, Trafalgar Sq. (N10 38.)

Cenotaph, The, Whitehall, S.W.1. The Empire's dignified memorial to "The Glorious Dead". Designed originally as a temporary monument, it was in 1920 re-erected on the same spot in permanent form. The base is always hidden in wreaths and flowers, which on Armistice Day (Nov. 11th) are most beautiful and profuse. Nearest station, Westminster. (O10 50.)

Central Criminal Court, Old Bailey, E.C.4. This imposing building was opened in 1905 on the site of the famous Newgate Prison, demolished in 1902. The building may be viewed on Tues. and Fri., 10 a.m.—4 p.m., on application to the Keeper. Nearest stations, Post Office, Holborn Viaduct (S.R.). (Q9 39.)

Charterhouse, Charterhouse Sq., E.C.1, is one of the most beautiful relics of old London. Originally founded in 1371 as a Carthusian Monastery, it finally became the property of one Thomas Sutton in 1611, who endowed it as a school, and as a hospital for "poor brethren". The school (transferred to Godalming in 1872) is one of the chief public schools. The buildings may be viewed on Mon., Wed., and Fri., from 3 p.m.—5 p.m., 1s. Apply to the Porter's Lodge. Nearest stations, Farringdon and High Holborn, Aldersgate and Barbican. (Q8 39.)

Chelsea Royal Hospital, Royal Hospital Rd., S.W.3. Founded in 1682, and built by Wren, as a home for old and disabled soldiers. Nell Gwynn is (incorrectly) supposed to have originated the idea. There are about 550 inmates, who wear picturesque coats, scarlet in summer and blue in winter. The Hall and Chapel contain many flags and trophies, and the Chapel is beautifully decorated. Admission free, weekdays, 10 a.m., 12 noon, and 2 p.m.—6 p.m., unless the gates are closed to the public at an earlier hour. Sunday, Chapel services, 11 a.m. 6.30 p.m. Nearest station, Sloane Square. (L13 49.)

'Cheshire Cheese", The Old, Wine Office Court, 145 Fleet St., E.C.4. This quaint old inn still remains much as it was when Dr. Johnson, Oliver Goldsmith, and Boswell frequented it. Johnson's favourite fireside corner is still pointed out, while the famous beef-steak puddings are made from the recipe used in his time. "Pudding Day" is Wednesday. Nearest station, Blackfriars. (P9 39.)

Cleopatra's Needle, Victoria Embankment, W.C.2. A red granite monolith, originally erected at Heliopolis in Egypt, and brought to England in 1878, after having been abandoned during a storm in the Bay of Biscay, but later recovered. It is 68½ feet high and weighs 180 tons. Nearest stations, Strand, Charing Cross. (O10 38.)

College of Arms, or Heralds' Office, Queen Victoria St., E.C.4. The College consists of three Kings-of-Arms (Garter, Clarenceux, Norroy), six heralds, and four pursuivants, and is concerned with the details of State functions, the granting of armorial bearings, the tracing of pedigrees, etc. Visitors are admitted on application. Nearest stations, Blackfriars, Mansion House. (Q9 39.)

Covent Garden Market, Southampton St., Strand, W.C.2. London's chief market for fruit, vegetables, and flowers. Originally the site of the convent garden of Westminster Abbey, it became the rendezvous of fruit and vegetable sellers. The display of blooms (Tues., Thurs., and Sat.) between 4 a.m. and 9 a.m. will always reward the early morning riser. Nearest station, Covent Garden. (O9 38.)

Crystal Palace, Sydenham, S.E.19. South London's principal centre of amusement. Originally the Exhibition Building in Hyde Park in 1851, it was removed to Sydenham in 1854. The great Nave is 1,600 ft. long, with aisles and transepts, while the towers at each end are 282 ft. high, giving views of great extent over South London, Surrey and Kent. The grounds extend over 200 acres. Numerous Courts exhibit architecture of different periods, whilst the musical festivals in the huge Handel Orchestra, the frequent exhibitions, and gorgeous firework displays (Thursday evenings) are deservedly noted. Usual price of admission, 1s. 3d. For announcements, see daily papers. Nearest stations, Crystal Palace High Level (S.R.), Low Level (S.R.). (S21 77.)

Docks, The. These vast works, extending from the Tower to Woolwich, with the Surrey Docks on the south side of the Thames, are too extensive to be more than mentioned here. Many deal with special commodities, and at all of them the shipping, from every part of the world, is a most interesting spectacle. The principal docks, with the nearest stations are : St. Katherine's Docks (Mark Lane, Leman St.), London Docks (Shadwell, Wapping), Limehouse Basin (Stepney East), West India and Millwall Docks (Poplar), East India Docks (Poplar), Victoria and Albert Docks, King George V Docks (Custom House, Connaught Rd., Manor Way). On the south side of the river, Surrey Docks (Rotherhithe, Surrey Docks). Stations not shown in italics are served from Fenchurch St. Station. (Maps 40-43 and 52-55.)

Downing St., Whitehall, S.W.1. contains the official residences of the Prime Minister (No. 10; the Cabinet Meetings are held here), and the Chancellor of the Exchequer (No. 11). No. 12 is the Government Whip's Office. These historic buildings are only outwardly plain. Nearest stations, Westminster, Trafalgar Square. (N10 50.)

Dulwich Picture Gallery, Gallery Rd., Dulwich, S.E.21. Notwithstanding its suburban situation, this collection is one of the finest, not only in London, but in the whole country. Intended as the nucleus of a Polish National Gallery, it contains many of the best examples of the Dutch, Flemish, and French schools, and some portraits and other works of both English and Spanish masters—Reynolds, Gainsborough, Velasquez, etc. Open free daily, 10 a.m.—dusk. Sundays, April—Sept., 2—5 or 6 p.m. Catalogue, 1s. 6d. Nearest station, North Dulwich (S.R.). (R18 75.)

Foreign Office, Downing St., Whitehall, S.W.1. Office hours, 12 noon—6 p.m. Admission on business only. An excellent view of this dignified building is obtained from St. James's Park (q.v.) immediately adjacent. Nearest stations, Westminster, Trafalgar Sq. (N10 50.)

General Post Office, E.C.1. The enormous postal business of the City and foreign mails are handled at the G.P.O. The original building in St. Martins le Grand was inadequate and was demolished in 1913. Various departments of the Post Office, including Engineering, Telephone, and Telegraph staffs, are housed in buildings adjoining Newgate Street. The latest building known as King Edward's Building faces Newgate St., but the entrance to the Public Hall will be found in King Edward St. Nearest station, Post Office. (Q9 59.)

Geffrye Museum, Kingsland Rd., E.2. A small but excellent collection of furniture and wood-craftsmanship. Open daily (except Mon.), 11 a.m.—dusk, Sun., 2 p.m.—dusk. Admission free. Nearest station, Shoreditch (L.M.S.R.). (S7 40.)

Geological Museum (Museum of Practical Geology), Exhibition Rd., S.W.7. The Hall contains busts of noted geologists and specimens of many kinds of stone and marble. There is also an extensive collection of British fossils, economic minerals (including gemstones), and models of famous diamonds, etc. Admission free, daily, 10 a.m.—6 p.m. Sun., 2 p.m.—6 p.m. Nearest station, South Kensington. (J11 48).

Goldsmiths' Hall, Gresham St., E.C.2. Contains a collection of portraits, chiefly of English sovereigns, and a magnificent collection of plate. Gold and silver are hall-marked here, the mark being the "leopard's head". Visitors are usually admitted on application to the Goldsmiths' Company. Nearest station, Post Office. (Q9 39.)
